PRIVATE DINING

HAWKSMOOR

“Does New York need a British steakhouse?”

Yes, if it’s Hawksmoor.”

New York Times

Hawksmoor was inspired by childhood memories of how good steak could taste. Founders Will Beckett and Huw Gott (friends since they were 11) opened the first Hawksmoor restaurant on London’s Commercial Street in 2006. More restaurants in London, Manchester, Edinburgh, New York, Liverpool and Dublin followed.

Our menus revolve around using the best ingredients we can find and cooking them as simply as possible – whether it be beef from grass-fed cattle, sustainable seafood from around the local coast, seasonal fruits and vegetables or local cheeses combined with great wines and interesting cocktails all served by people who love what they do.

NEW YORK CITY

Step through our doors and you'll enter the national landmarked Assembly Hall at the United Charities Building which hosts a 120-seat restaurant, 40-seat bar, 8-seat semi-private dining space, and two private dining rooms which can each seat up to 12 and 14 guests respectively. This space, which was closed off from public view for over a century, boasts high-vaulted ceilings, stained glass windows, and magnificent archways.

After spending the better part of a decade criss-crossing the United States visiting small community farms grazing cattle on rotation on fertile US soil, traveling the Eastern seaboard to find the freshest seafood, and being so inspired by the passion and diligence we've encountered, we've worked hard to select the best product from suppliers who care about producing good food as much as we do.

For those familiar with our menus, there are plenty of favorite dishes present and correct, incorporating some of the greatest American ingredients as well as some unique drinks featuring collaborations with local suppliers we love.

SHARING MENUS

We have designed special sharing menus which offer a range of classic Hawksmoor dishes and our dictionary-thick steaks. All are served family style – with the steaks cooked to order, sliced, and served in cast-iron skillet with our legendary sides and sauces.

All menus can be accompanied by matched wines selected by our team of sommeliers, as well as a variety of cocktail packages showcasing an aperitif to start and a digestif to finish your meal. If you prefer to order drinks à la carte once in the restaurant, that's no trouble at all.

We can cater for vegetarians or any other dietary requirements you or your guests may have.

Terms & conditions apply, please contact the reservations team for further details.

SUNDAY ROAST

“For a Sunday meal, a Roast is better than Brunch”

Eater NY

In Britain, the tradition of a Sunday Roast dates back to the 15th century where large joints of meat were roasted on a spit over an open fire, strictly on Sundays. As you might imagine, to achieve a similar flavour, we start ours on our charcoal grill and finish them in the oven.

Many who have had a Sunday Roast equate it to a Thanksgiving dinner - a comforting, filling meal that is best served in the company of loved ones.

The British institution has brought friends and families together for centuries and we're delighted to welcome New Yorkers to this tradition.

Our private dining room Sunday roast is available every Sunday from 12PM - 4:30PM
