

HAWKSMOOR

“Flawless. The best steak you’ll find anywhere”

The Times

Hawksmoor was inspired by childhood memories of how good steak could taste. Founders Will Beckett and Huw Gott (friends since they were 11) opened the first Hawksmoor restaurant on London’s Commercial Street in 2006; more restaurants in London, Manchester, Edinburgh and New York followed.

Our menus revolve around using the best ingredients we can find and cooking them as simply as possible – whether it be beef from grass-fed native breed cattle, sustainable seafood from around the local coast, seasonal fruits and vegetables or local cheeses, combined with great wines and interesting cocktails all served by people who love what they do.

EDINBURGH

Hawksmoor Edinburgh is located in the beautiful former National Bank of Scotland Banking Hall, a Grade A listed 'building of national importance', a short walk from Waverley station, Princes Street and just off St. Andrew Square.

The 165 cover restaurant has been sensitively refurbished to celebrate the building's original landscapes and it features two private dining rooms that can accommodate groups of 13 and 46 diners. Both spaces are private, whilst looking into the restaurant, and are ideal for friends and family feasts, wedding parties, business events, celebrations or pure pleasure.

In Edinburgh, Hawksmoor draws on the amazing produce that Scotland has to offer, featuring seafood from around the Scottish coast and beef from grass-fed native breed cattle from both sides of the border.

McLELLAN ROOM

Our McLellan private room takes the name of one of the greatest Scottish artists of the twentieth century, Sadie McLellan, who created the etched windows that surround our building. In them she pays homage to the industries of the bank's main customers: agriculture, fisheries, shipping, architecture, education, engineering, weaving and printing.

McLellan room offers intimate dining and hosts up to 13 guests around one grand dining table. A room perfect for birthday celebrations, team lunches and special gatherings.
