

HAWKSMOOR

“Flawless. The best steak you’ll find anywhere”

The Times

Hawksmoor was inspired by childhood memories of how good steak could taste. Founders Will Beckett and Huw Gott (friends since they were 11) opened the first Hawksmoor restaurant on London’s Commercial Street in 2006; more restaurants in London, Manchester, Edinburgh, New York and Liverpool followed.

Our menus revolve around using the best ingredients we can find and cooking them as simply as possible – whether it be beef from grass-fed native breed cattle, sustainable seafood from around the local coast, seasonal fruits and vegetables or local cheeses, combined with great wines and interesting cocktails all served by people who love what they do.

LIVERPOOL

Hawksmoor Liverpool, located in the iconic and beautiful, Grade II-listed India Buildings, is just an olive's throw from Castle St, on the corner of Brunswick Street and Fenwick Street.

Built for the Blue Funnel Line, whose luxury liners took passengers from Liverpool to New York in style, the building was inspired by the grand optimism of the roaring twenties.

The 165-cover restaurant and 30-cover bar interiors celebrate this legacy by highlighting original fittings and sourcing antique finds from the same era.

The food menu showcases Hawksmoor signature dishes, dictionary-thick steaks from traditionally-reared cattle and sustainably sourced seafood while the cocktail menu celebrates the second golden age of cocktails, 1995-2005, a period credited with the revival of cocktail culture around the world.

THE NEW YORKER ROOM

The New Yorker Room, with 16 covers for private dining, lies just off the grand entrance. It celebrates links between Liverpool and New York, including one of the building's architects, Herbert Rowse, amongst other famous Liverpudlians who crossed the pond and made New York their home.

From feasts of grass-fed British beef and sustainable seafood, to wine tastings or casual dinners, with expertly crafted cocktails and canapes, we will work with you to make it an experience like no other.
