"Flawless. The best steak you'll find anywhere."

THE TIMES

Hawksmoor was inspired by childhood memories of how good steak could taste. Founders Will Beckett and Huw Gott (friends since they were 11) opened the first Hawksmoor restaurant on Commercial Street in 2006; more restaurants in London, Manchester, Edinburgh and New York followed.

Our menus revolve around using the best ingredients we can find and cooking them as simply as possible – whether it be beef from grass-fed native breed cattle, sustainable seafood from around the local coast, seasonal fruits and vegetables or great British cheeses, combined with great wines and interesting cocktails all served by people who love what they do.

LIVERPOOL

Hawksmoor Liverpool, located in the iconic and beautiful, Grade II-listed India Buildings, is just an olive's throw from Castle St, on the corner of Brunswick Street and Fenwick Street.

The 165-cover restaurant and 30-cover bar was inspired by the grand optimism of the roaring twenties, and offers a spectacular space to dine, host events, celebrate or catch up with loved ones. The restaurant also offers one private dining room and a whole host of event and group dining options.

Since first opening in 2006, Hawksmoor has become one of the UK's best-loved restaurants, renowned for its dry-aged steaks, award-winning cocktails, conscientious approach to sourcing ingredients and industry-leading employment practices.

THE NEW YORKER ROOM

Hawksmoor Liverpool's private dining room – The New Yorker Room – seats up to 18 people around one large table, and is situated just off the main entrance. It celebrates links between Liverpool and New York, including one of the building's architects, Herbert Rowse, amongst other famous Liverpudlians who crossed the pond and made New York their home.

Ideal for any form of intimate gathering, corporate event, celebration or get-together.
